AMBASSADOR
Advanced Aviation Team

Presidential-level service in private aviation, now available in a jet card.

Ambassador is designed for travelers who value a dedicated team, thoughtful planning, and a consistently elevated experience — every time you fly.

PRIVATE JET CHARTER

AdvancedAviationTeam.com

A decade of trusted service in private aviation

Advanced Aviation Team is an on-demand private jet charter brokerage serving business and leisure travelers who expect the best in safety, service, and reliability. Led by two former Directors of the White House Travel Office, our team brings decades of aviation experience and remains personally involved in our clients' travel.

That experience shapes how we manage every trip, from complex itineraries to the smallest personal details. The same approach carries through to the Ambassador Jet Card, giving clients a consistent and structured way to fly with the same level of care and attention.

We're honored to get to know our clients—remembering birthdays, milestones, and the names of their pets—not only to provide honest, exceptional service, but to anticipate needs and solve details before questions ever arise.
